OFFICIAL RULES

1. THE PROJECT

- (i) RED is a year-long artistic initiative organized by the Qulliit Nunavut Status of Women Council (“Qulliit”) known as RED (Remember, Educate, Dedicate) asking Nunavut artisans, musicians, carvers, writers, and seamstresses to create pieces that honour the Inuit Murdered and Missing Women, Girls and 2SLGBTQQIA+ lost to violence (the “Project”).
- (ii) The Project includes the selection of 10 artwork related to the Project prepared by 10 Nunavut artists in a Nunavut-wide contest (“Contest”). Each participant (a “Participant”) will enter the Contest by submitting an artwork related to the Project together with a submission form. The 10 artists (“Non-Commissioned Artists”) and their artwork will be selected by a panel of 5 members appointed by Qulliit (“Panel”).
- (iii) The Project also includes the direct commissioning of 10 artwork from 10 Nunavut artists. These artists (“Commissioned Artists”) will be contacted and selected directly by Qulliit, outside of the Contest.
- (iv) The 10 artworks created by the Commissioned Artists selected by Qulliit and the 10 artworks created by the Non-Commissioned Artists selected by the Panel will be showcased starting in May 2024. A permanent and virtual exhibition to be unveiled in Iqaluit in May 2024 will be followed by a traveling exhibition which will take place in all three regions of Nunavut starting in the fall of 2024.

2. APPLICATION OF RULES

- (i) These Rules apply to the Contest to select the 10 Non-Commissioned Artists and their artwork.
- (ii) These Rules also apply to the Commissioned Artists except for the rules that are specific to the Contest part of the Project.

3. APPLICATION PERIOD

All artwork must be received by Qulliit on or before 5:00 pm on March 29, 2024 (Submission Deadline”).

4. ELIGIBILITY

- (i) The Project and Contest are only open to residents of Nunavut.
- (ii) A person who enters the Contest is known as a Participant.”
- (iii) A group of persons may collaborate on an artwork but only one Participant can submit it to the Contest.
- (iv) A Commissioned Artist is ineligible to be a Participant.
- (v) Each Participant (and their parent or legal guardian if under 19) confirms they have read and agree to follow these Rules.
- (vi) Qulliit may contact a minor s parent/legal guardian for the purposes of verifying their agreement to follow these Rules and to consent to the minor s participation in the Project or the Contest. The refusal to complete such verification to the satisfaction of Qulliit may result in the disqualification of the minor.
