Wise Woman and Outstanding Young Woman Awards Guidelines and Nomination Form

Guidelines

Since 2009, the Qullit Nunavut Status of Women Council has recognized the work of Nunavut women and girls through the Wise Woman and Outstanding Young Woman Awards.

These awards honour women and girls who are role models in their communities, and recognize their work to improve the status of women in Nunavut.

The following guidelines ensure fair and equitable decisions selection of the awards.

Criteria for the selection of the award recipients:

- Role model in their community/region in Nunavut.
- Dedication and commitment to women and gender-diverse people.
- Acts to improve the lives and equality of women.

Nominations and Selections:

1. Women of all ages, who reside in Nunavut, are eligible:
 - a. Outstanding Young Women - women 35 years old and under
 - b. Wise Woman – women over 35 with long-term work to help women, girls and gender-diverse people.
2. The recipient can only win one award in their lifetime.
3. The Council will create a selection committee to select award recipients.
4. Each member will select women by their first, second and third choices. Each choice is given a numerical value of 3 points for first choice, 2 points for second choice, and 1 point for third choice. The nominee receiving the greatest number of points is the selected recipient.
